Hylandale School Song

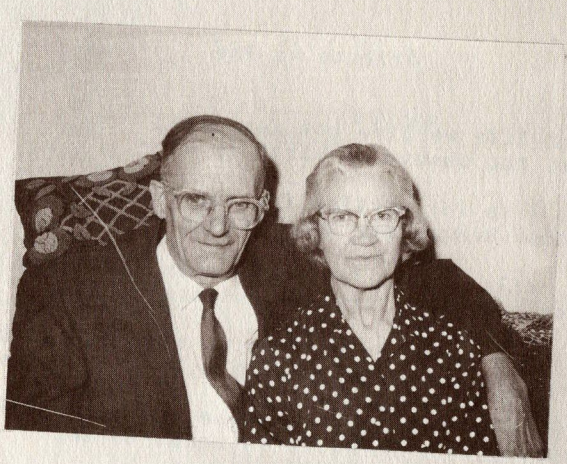

1. There is a school down in the vale
Hylandale, my Hylandale
To which there leads a winding trail
Hylandale, my Hylandale
There's beauty rare on every hadd,
The cooling spring, its pebbled sand,
The fairest spot in all the land
Hyalandale, my Hylandale.

2. The hills like mountains tower on high,
Hylandale, my Hylandale,
And fleech clouds sail 'cross the sky,
Hylandale, my Hylandale.
The shady hillsides form retreat,
For weary souls and wandering feet,
There God with us doth oft times meet,
Hylandale, my Hylandale.

3. The graceful oaks the slopes adorn.
Hylandale, my Hylandale.
The fairest rob by nature worn,
Hylandale, my Hylandale.
From morn till night the bright birds sing
O'er hill and dale the echoes ring
The whip-poor-wills at evening sing,
Hylandale, my Hylandale.

4. The students too are fair and true,
Hylandale, my Hylandale.
With visions of a work to do,
Hylandale, my Hylandale.
May all grow stronger day by day,
Continue on the King's highway,
Trust God if skies be blue or gray,
Hylandale, my Hylandale.

Dedicated to ...

"Aim high," is a motto that should be taken by every youth. We owe the insite on such a goal to Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Hallock.

Many times they have patiently talked to the students and added their long earned wisdom to the little we've gained.

We thank them, and dedicate this annual to them in gratitude.

Tribute We Pay

For life we live not for death
And the beauty of birth is here

To live for service for our fellow men
Whose hearts are more feeble than ours

A smile in the darkness, then tis light
For brave men toil regardless of fate.

With a dream to cherish we base our cause
And gratitude to those who live for life.

So tribute we pay to those who know
That more than death is meant to be.
