HYLIGHTS

Percy Hallock

Dedicated to . . .

Nellie Sheppler

" Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might."

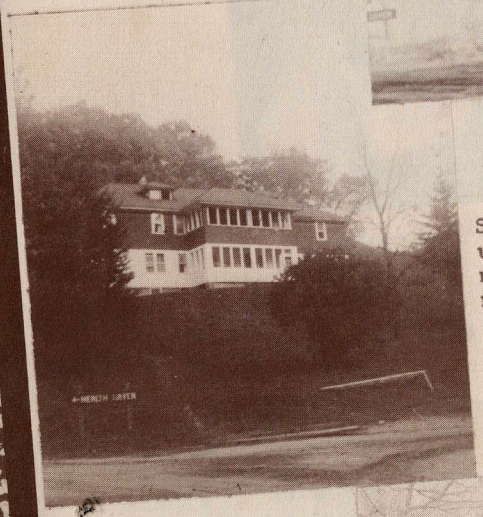

Nellie Hallock Sheppler was among the first group of students to attend Bethel Academy when it first opened its doors. Later, her dedication to christian education led her to Bethel and Walderly Academies as a member of the faculty family and also to struggle in the founding of Hylandale. It was her practice to care for any one the Lord sent to her. Motherly counsel was often served along with home-made bread and sauce. Thus she was enabled to finance the work of establishing this school.

In dedicating this annual to her, we express our gratitude for her devotion to the work of christian education.
