HYLIGHTS - 1980

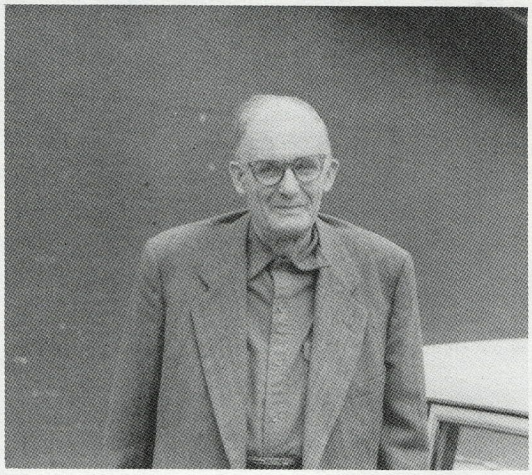

HYLANDALE
ACADEMY

Dedicated To

Mr. Percy Hallock

Mr. & Mrs. Harold Hallock

For over fifty years,"Mr. Percy" has been synonymous with Christian education and Hylandale. In the classroom, he could at times be persuaded to digress from the day's lesson but never from the gentle, persistent admonition to incorporate Christian principles in one's life.

He loves learning new and useful things and he enjoys passing on his knowledge and Christian philosophy to the young people he loves and for whom he has spent his life in service.

The Biblical admonition which he so often quoted--"Judge not that ye be not judged, for with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again" (Matthew 7:1,2)--is a principle of his own life. Many young people have gone on to better things because of his kindly understanding and loving judgment. His concern is for the eternal--that he not be a stumbling block and thereby cause anyone to lose eternal salvation.

He has a quiet sense of humor and enjoys amusing things--but not at someone else's expense. He enjoys work and the sense of accomplishment that comes with a day well spent. He is not so closely connected with students in the classroom now, but his influence is still felt as he tutors and as he works with students in the woodshop.

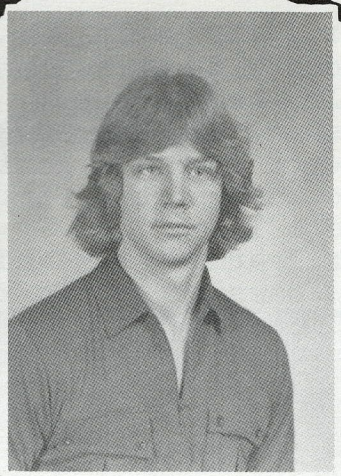

His life has been and continues to be like the ripples on a pond after a stone is cast in. He exerts an ever-widening circle of influence through those whose lives have touched his.

His son and daughter-in-law, Harold and Jane, are now pillars in the operation of Hylandale. They are giving unstintingly of their money and time, carrying administrative and financial burdens as well as sheltering several students in their home; thus continuing the family tradition of self-sacrifice.

Their children also are involved in educational work, and so the ripples travel on, touching more and more lives. Only eternity will reveal the harvest of these dedicated lives. May they continually have God's guidance and blessing.

TERRY

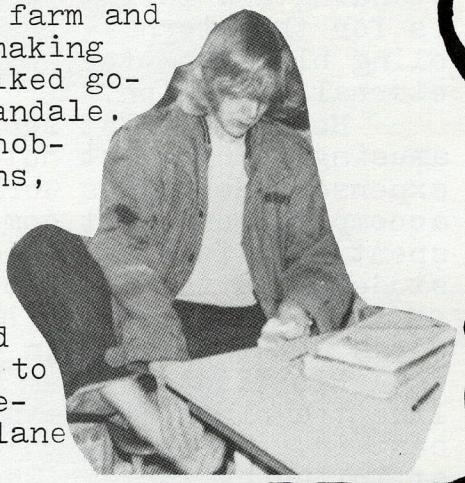

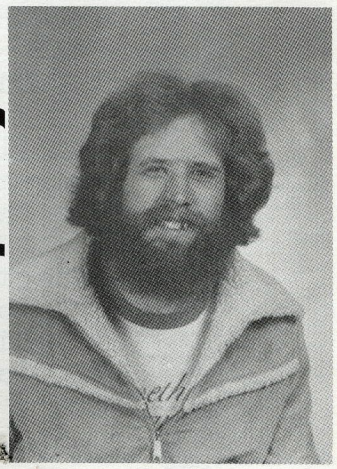

NEWMAN

Terry Newman was born in Bremerton, Washington where he grew up in the country enjoying the surrounding mountains and the ocean. Terry has been at Hylandale for four years including the summers. He has worked on the farm and in the welding shop making bale cages. Terry liked going to school at Hylandale.

Some of Terry's hobies are redoing guns, breaking horses, camping, swimming, fishing and hunting.

Terry would like to go on to school and become an airplane pilot

PATTY

KRAUSE

Patricia Ann Krause was born and grew up in a small town near Wittenberg Wisconsin. She came to Hylandale her Junior year for a Christian education and also for a change. The thing she remembers most from Hylandale is all the neat people she met. Her pet peeve is people who can't keep a secret, her favorite food is pizza, and her favorite color is blue. In the future she hopes to go on to school and take up Home Economics.
